SYNOPSIS

English

One is a professional athlete. One thinks of sport as a lifestyle. And one gets into sport almost by chance. One, surrounded by the crowd, seeks the inner strength to carve out moments of profound intimacy with self and nature. One feels at home on the street, seeking a family in chaos. And one finds peace in emptiness.

Three young people who are “different”, special, but who share a common need to measure up to an “adult” world. Three young people that life puts to a severe test: can they achieve self-awareness, and still nurture that sacred flame which makes them feel alive? It is a massive challenge, which each must face alone.

To live, to grow up, while trying not to stop dreaming of a future all your own. Because the strongest desire is to live your own passion, to live for what makes your heart beat faster, to live for yourself in a world that is out of the “ordinary”. A film about the time in your life in which you feel alone with yourself, facing a vast, magnificent and frightening void.

A decision about which road to take, made alone between dreams and fears, successes and defeats.

Français

Il y a celui qui pratique un sport de compétition, celui qui fait d'un sport son style de vie et celui que se met au sport presque par hasard. Il y a celui qui, dans la foule, recherche la force qui lui permettra de se confronter à lui-même et à la nature, celui qui dans la rue se sent chez lui et qui, dans le chaos, recherche la famille et celui qui, par contre, trouve la paix dans le vide. Trois jeunes très différents mais qui ont en commun le fait de devoir se mesurer au monde “adulte”.

Trois jeunes que la vie met à l'épreuve en leur lançant un grand défi: prendre conscience d'eux-mêmes tout en gardant ce feu intérieur qui les fait sentir vivants. Un défi difficile que chacun affronte dans la solitude. Vivre, devenir adulte sans cesser de rêver. Parce que vivre sa propre passion, vivre pour ce qui fait battre le cœur, vivre pleinement dans un monde hors du commun est le désir le plus fort.

Un film pour raconter un moment de la vie où l'on se sent seul avec devant soi un grand vide, splendide et effrayant.

Le choix solitaire d'un chemin personnel fait de rêves et de peurs, de succès et de défaites.

Italiano

Chi pratica lo sport a livello agonistico, chi ne ha fatto uno stile di vita, chi ci arriva quasi per caso. Chi in mezzo alla folla cerca la forza per conquistarsi attimi di contatto profondo con se stesso e con la natura; chi per le strade si sente a casa e nel caos cerca la famiglia; chi invece trova la pace nel vuoto.

Tre giovani “diversi”, speciali, accomunati dalla necessità di doversi confrontare con un mondo “adulto”. Tre giovani che la vita mette alla prova ponendo loro una grande sfida: prendere coscienza di sé mantenendo acceso quel fuoco sacro che li fa sentire vivi. Una sfida difficile, che ognuno di essi affronta nella sua solitudine.

Vivere, diventare grandi, cercando di non smettere di sognare un futuro tutto loro. Perché il desiderio più forte è vivere la propria passione, vivere per ciò che fa battere il cuore, vivere se stessi in un mondo “non ordinario”. Un film per raccontare un momento della vita in cui ci si sente soli con se stessi, con davanti a sé un grande, splendido e spaventoso vuoto.

Una solitaria scelta di percorso fra sogni e paure, successi e sconfitte.

Deutsch

Sport als Berufung, Lifestyle, oder reiner Zufall? Es gibt Menschen, die suchen in der Menschenmenge die Kraft, um mit sich selbst und der Natur in Einklang zu kommen. Andere sind auf der Strasse zuhause, und suchen im Chaos und in der Freundes-Clique nach dem Gefühl, Teil einer Gemeinschaft, einer Familie zu sein. Andere wiederum finden in der Stille und Leere ihr Glück.

Drei junge Menschen, mit ihren Stärken und Schwächen, müssen ihren Platz in der “Erwachsenenwelt” finden. Aussergewöhnliche junge Menschen, die von ihrem Schicksal auf unterschiedliche Weise auf die Probe gestellt werden. Es geht darum erwachsen zu werden, die eigenen Träume zu bewahren und die Zuversicht, dass eine ganz eigene Zukunft möglich ist, eine andere als die Erwachsenen sie ihnen vorschlagen und vorleben.

Eines haben die drei Jugendlichen gemeinsam: den Willen, sich mit Herz und Seele ihrer Leidenschaft hinzugeben. Denn das ist ihre Welt - ihr ganz eigenes Universum - das, wofür sie leben.

Eine Geschichte rund um das Erwachsenwerden, der Suche nach der eigenen Identität und dem Sinn des Lebens; über Entscheidungen zwischen Träumen und Ängsten, über Erfolge und Schicksalsschläge.

LARA GUT as Chiara

« I gave my debut in the World Cup in late December 2007 and a month later I passed the finish line on my back and without a ski in St. Moritz, where I won my first podium finish. I must admit that from my first race until today and I have seen a lot and have been through all kinds of things. I skipped months in middle school, when I was 15 years old I skied the entire month of August in Argentina to train, I have experienced amazing moments, and winning races on the podium at the World Championships, but I also had terrible falls, where I dislocated my hip or ruined one ankle. I think that all life is made of good and bad times and this is the famous "experience" that everyone talks about which should help us later to think at least twice before taking the big decisions.

Describing me it is complicated, because I talk a lot and if I wrote everything I would like to tell you, the outcome would make no sense. I think it is important to know that my family and health are the things that matter most to me, that skiing is the most spectacular thing there is and I try every day to do my best and be positive. Well, I hope that with these few lines I managed to bring a smile to you too ! »

A Swiss Italian skateboard crew since 1996, Warriors become a skateboard company in 2009 to support a new generation of talented skaters based in Lugano. WARRIORSKATEBOARDS grows out of the need in the scene for friendly, skater owned, 100% skateboarding brands.

In a moment in which corporate interests are risking to compromise the identity and uniqueness of Skateboarding, Warriors skateboards wants to be there, steady and trustworthy, for the skaters.

We want to build from day zero to keep alive the peculiarities of skateboarding; style, fun and friendship.

Tutti Giù is their first appearance in a feature film.

La jeunesse ne manque pas de cœur

par Antoine Duplan

Le Temps, Genève, Mercredi 8 août 2012

Festival du film de Locarno 2012, concours Cinéastes du présent

Le Festival de Locarno présente «Tutti Giu», un film tessinois. Le premier long métrage de Niccolo Castelli, avec la skieuse Lara Gut Candide et enthousiaste, Tutti Giu porte les défauts et les qualités du premier film. Jullo, Chiara, Edo et les autres vivent dans un monde qui n'est pas le Tessin des cartes postales: du béton à graffiter, des parkings à silloner en skate... c'est gris Lugano en hiver. Solitaire sous son bonnet de laine noire, Edo hante les contreforts de la cité qu'il spraye de fresques grandioses. Championne de ski, Chiara peine à assumer ses devoirs médiatiques et promotionnels: elle n'a pas envie de sourire dans des spots commerciaux, mais de vivre comme une adolescente normale. Enfin, le beau Jullo au sourire craquant, fameux tombeur de filles, est un as du skateboard. [...]

Film choral, Tutti Giu atteste de l'état de la jeunesse avec justesse, mais aussi avec cette emphase romantique indissociable des années où l'avenir est encore grand ouvert. «Un film pour raconter un moment de la vie où l'on se sent seul avec, devant soi, un grand vide splendide et effrayant. Le choix solitaire d'un chemin personnel fait de rêves et de peurs, de succès et de défaites», vibre le cinéaste dans ses notes de présentation.

Tutti Giu entretient un lien ambigu plutôt intéressant avec le réel en confiant des rôles à quatre membres de Warriors skateboards, un groupe d'amis unis par les liens du skate et de la musique, et celui de Chiara à la championne de ski Lara Gut. En revanche, il n'évite pas certains clichés avec Edo, l'artiste maudit habitué par son oeuvre, ni une tendance au clip – montage haché de figures de style sur roulettes, matraquées de rock.

Quant à Lara Gut, pour la première fois à l'écran, elle témoigne d'une vitalité réjouissante. Lorsqu'on lui demande quel message elle veut faire passer à travers le personnage de Chiara, cette championne qui lui ressemble, elle évoque «la solitude des trois personnages, la recherche de la normalité malgré le fait de se sentir un peu différent des autres, la volonté de vivre et le fait que tout passe tellement vite... Mieux vaut profiter de la vie!»

DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT

English

2008 - in a very short timespan, three small but moving stories illustrate the ups and downs of the drama called life. A young girl literally slides into the headlines of the international media; an artist, driven to creativity by a great sense of frailty and sensitivity, whose life tragically ends; a skateboarder, lead figure of a strong urban subculture, finds out by pure chance that he carries a terrible illness. The girl must learn to find a balance between private and public life in the media. The artist finds a way to communicate his feelings to the ones he loves. The skateboarder discovers that the only way to overcome his tragic fate is to stay true to himself. Three young persons on the verge to adulthood are confronted with great questions they can only answer on their own.

The loneliness everyone is faced with in this moment that changes your whole life in the blink of an eye: the time it takes to cross the finish line; the short time between tripping and falling; the single spark it takes to revive a heart. It is a story about the solitude you feel when you have to decide to take on the leading role in your life.

“Tutti Giù” - Everybody down, literally and metaphorically, and the strength to get back up again. The gap between private and collective empathy; the subconscious feelings that define who we really are. Thinking about your life and the life of the people around you. Gaining consciousness in the instant you start walking, at the same time scared of where you will go, but certain that the biggest danger lies in standing still.

PIETRO ZUERCHER Cinematographer

Pietro was born in 1976, in the Italian speaking part of Switzerland.

In 1997 he moved to the USA to attend the film program at the Maine Film and TV Workshop in Rockport, Maine. In 1998 he started his professional experience as camera assistant, he trained on Steadicam and he started shooting shorts films.

In 2000 Pietro was accepted at the American Film Institute in Los Angeles where he earned his Master Degree in Cinematography in 2002. Since then Pietro has been shooting features, commercials, shorts, documentaries, music videos, on all formats available and at the four corners of the world, from the States, to Europe, to India. All this experiences gave Pietro a wide vision of different cultures and ways of making movies, and he got used to many ways of working that enable him to adapt very easily to all directors, situations and problems.

Pietro divides his time between Los Angeles and the French part of Switzerland and he still works in different countries all over the world.

NEVERCREW Art directors

NEVERCREW are a swiss-based artists duo composed by Pablo Togni and Christian Rebecchi. They started in 1996 doing graffiti, drawings and graphics, and since then they have always tried to blend their reciprocal passions, the old and the new ones, to create, build, have fun, evolve and maybe communicate.

Over the years they have mixed the elements of graphics, collage, lettering with those of street art, graffiti, and traditional painting. They mixed the interaction with the environment at the image, the 2D with the 3D, for stylistic choices but also to create always more and with more freedom.

In their work memories and dreams are used to be combined with what they are now; they use the vintage and the surreal or the atmosphere and the structure of the metropolis.

Main aspects of their concepts are exploration, space travels, changing point of views, empathy, proportions and connections. Also if their images seem to be dissociated, as usually happens in life, there is a strong interaction between the different environments (that include real elements, fictional and surreal elements, objects, ambiances and feelings, disproportions and links to everyday life and reality) and everything become part of an unique balance (also with the observer's space, of course). By doing this, Nevercrew love to create evocative situations, thoughts, new creatures and new worlds, images with their own soul, and communicate specific ideas and concepts about their modern reality and society.

KOVLO Original Music

KOVLO - composed by Mario Bisignani guitar, Stefano Chiassai guitar, Alessio Galupi drum, Giona Mattei bass - are one of the most interesting and acclaimed european post-rock bands based in Canton Ticino, Southern part of Switzerland. The sound of the band moves between quite, intimate and mysterious soundscapes, and hypnotic, furious and violent noise explosions, in the tradition of bands like Mogwai, Godspeed You Black Emperor!, Shellac, Mono, Explosion in the sky.

From October 2005 to December 2006 play live, promoting their first record, A new position for a second degree burnt, all over Southern Switzerland and Northern Italy.

In April 2007, KOVLO recorded their second album, I'm so happy on this boat. The artistic producer of the record will be Rob Ellis (producer and musician of PJ Harvey and Marianne Faihfull, collaborator of Placebo, Laika, Swell, and others).

Spring 2011 KOVLO release their new record, Hey Mom, where's Timbuctù? (On the Camper records, OR 011).

VILLI HERMANN

Imagofilm Lugano, Switzerland, July 2012

English

Imagofilm Lugano was set up at the beginning of the 1980s as an independent film production company to produce my own work.

In recent times however, while continuing to produce my own films, my attention has increasingly turned towards young, up-and-coming filmmakers from the Canton of Ticino. As a result, I have been closely involved with several carefully selected projects.

Imagofilm produced Ombre (Shadows) and L'Artigiano glaciale (The Ice Sculptor) by Alberto Meroni, as well as his latest short film Tapperman with Andrea Zogg and Roberta Fossile. In 2010 Imagofilm produced Sinestesia by Erik Bernasconi, nominated for the Quartz 2010 (Swiss Cinema Awards) for Best Screenplay, Best Actress, and Best Female Newcomer.

I closely followed all these projects and the directors from the original idea to the cinema release. This is a philosophy and principle that I wish to preserve.

Tutti Giù is Niccolò Castelli's first feature film and will be released in cinemas throughout Ticino this September.

La maison de production cinématographique indépendante Imagofilm Lugano est née au début des années '80 dans le but de produire mes propres films.

Ces dernières années, tout en continuant à produire mes propres films, je me suis intéressé aux jeunes cinéastes du Canton du Tessin et je me suis consacré à des projets soigneusement sélectionnés de jeunes réalisateurs.

J'ai produit Ombre et L'Artisan millénaire d'Alberto Meroni, ainsi que le dernier court-métrage de ce jeune réalisateur, Tapperman avec Andrea Zogg et Roberta Fossile. En 2010 j'ai produit Sinestesia de Erik Bernasconi, film qui a été nommé aux Quartz 2010 (Prix du Cinéma Suisse) pour le Meilleur Scénario, la Meilleure Actrice et le Meilleur Espoir Féminin.

J'ai souhaité suivre ces projets et ces jeunes réalisateurs depuis l'idée de départ jusqu'à la sortie en salle. C'est une philosophie et un principe que j'entends poursuivre.

Tutti Giù est le premier long-métrage de Niccolò Castelli et sera dans les salles cinématographiques du Tessin à compter du mois de septembre.

GABRIELLA DE GARA and GIULIA FRETTA

Coproducers RSI Swiss Television, Lugano, July 2012

English

The world of young people: a world whose colours may sometimes seem extreme, but whose nuances soon become apparent, at a deeper level, in all the tones of anger, happiness, discovery, hope and disappointment. All mixed with the impatience and frenzy typical of adolescent arrogance, which switchbacks from psychological highs to deep depression in the blink of an eye.

Tutti Giù explores the lives of three young people, distant and separated from one another, whose paths sometimes cross in the small world of Lugano, but who never really come into contact, although all three are engaged in sports activities: skiing, skate-boarding and ice-hockey. And then there is the "underground" environment of graffiti-creation, an explosion of feelings and emotions otherwise unexpressed and unresolved.

A film devoted to young people, but which seeks to communicate with all generations, conceived, written and directed by a young film-maker, who demonstrates consistency and respect in dealing with his characters, their choices, rituals and language.

This immediately emerges as the great strength of this creative venture, keenly supported by RSI.

Français

Le monde des adolescents est une vaste palette dont les couleurs peuvent apparaître crues et criardes au premier abord, mais qui laisse apparaître très vite autant de nuances qu'il y a de rage de vivre, de joies, de découvertes, d'espoirs et de désillusions. Dans ce tourbillon des sentiments, où se mélangent aussi bien l'envie de brûler les étapes et les rêves le plus délirants, nos ados passent indifféremment, "en un battement de cils", de l'exaltation enivrante au désespoir le plus sombre.

Tutti Giù est donc un voyage au centre de la planète Jeunes, un éclairage qui nous montre les trois protagonistes à la fois proches et étrangers, qui parfois se côtoient dans l'univers clos de Lugano. Malgré le dénominateur commun du sport, ils ne cultivent pas de véritables contacts: le cirque blanc du ski, le skateboarding, le hockey. Tout cela sur fond de graffiti, dans ce milieu quelque peu underground, où les émotions cachées et les sentiments enfouis finissent par exploser au grand jour.

Consacré aux jeunes, ce film souhaite néanmoins communiquer avec toutes les générations. Il a été écrit et tourné par un jeune réalisateur, avec beaucoup de cohérence et de respect envers ses personnages, leur choix, leurs rites et leurs langages.

RSI a su reconnaître dès le départ ce projet cinématographique fort et très original en lui apportant son soutien.

Italiano

Il mondo giovanile: un mondo in cui i colori possono sembrare a tratti esasperati, ma in cui le sfumature si identificano ben presto, a un secondo livello, in tutti i toni della rabbia, dell'allegria, della scoperta, delle speranze, delle delusioni. Il tutto mescolato all'impazienza e al classico delirio d'onnipotenza adolescenziale, che porta da picchi a baratri psicologici in un battere di ciglia.

Tutti Giù è un viaggio in tre realtà giovanili, lontane, separate, che a tratti si sfiorano nella circoscritta geografia luganese, ma che non entrano mai in un vero contatto, pur avendo tutte, quale sfondo, un ambito sportivo: il circo bianco dello sci, lo skate-boarding, l'hockey. E poi l'ambiente in qualche modo underground del graffiti, esplosione di emozioni e sensazioni altrimenti irrisolte e inespresso.

Un film dedicato ai ragazzi, ma che vuole comunicare con tutte le generazioni, ideato, scritto e realizzato da un regista giovane, che promette grande coerenza e rispetto verso i personaggi, le loro scelte, i loro riti e linguaggi.

Questo è sembrato da subito il punto di forza di questa originale operazione cinematografica, fortemente sostenuta da RSI.
